*A special night just for...
Fathers & Daughters of all ages.*

Father Daughter Ball

WHEN: Friday, February 3, 2012 or Saturday, February 4, 2012

WHERE: Breaking Bread Banquet Hall, 6451 S. Business Drive, Sheboygan

PARKING: Available at Breaking Bread.

SEATING: Doors open promptly at 5:00 pm each night. Open seating for ten at each table. Large family groups may want to arrive early. Inner tables are removed after dinner for dancing (these tables will be marked).

MENU: Grilled chicken breast, mashed potatoes & gravy, carrots, soup, dinner rolls, dessert, milk and coffee (soda is available for purchase). Program and dinner will begin at 6:00 pm.

MUSIC: Music is tasteful and fun. You will recognize many familiar and old favorites! Be ready for the Limbo and the Chicken Dance...

ATTIRE: This is a special occasion and an opportunity to wear your "Sunday Best". Daughters usually wear dresses ... some come in gowns. Fathers often wear dress shirts and ties; suits are common attire (even a few tuxedos). Limited corsages & tiaras are available at the reception table for a small charge (smaller denominations appreciated).

PHOTOS: "Irish Studios" will be offering portrait packages for a minimal charge. Pictures will begin when the doors open and continue throughout early evening.

SAFETY: For your daughter's safety, please remain on the ballroom floor. Please supervise her, and let her know that running is not allowed. This is a great event, and a wonderful opportunity to teach your daughter how to behave like a lady. There are attendants available to assist your daughter as needed to the washroom. Let us know how we can help you!
